

Hell's Pussycats 'Hit' Town

Sunday —
Needham's "Hell's Pussycats" Wheel
Through Cohasset.

Big bikes. Big smiles. Lots of laughter. It was a group we knew could only be up to no good. So we cruised into Hugo's parking lot behind them, lined them up and got our evidence. A Needham Times story, at least. Possibly even UPI would pick up this biggy.

The Massachusetts Chapter of Hell's Pussycats had invaded the town and Hugo's parking lot. H. Phillip Garrity, chairman of the Needham Board of Selectmen, admitted the group was causing a little commotion, but tried to smooth things over by telling us it is a Sunday morning breakfast bunch, which included the vice president of Filenes. Oh yeah sure, we thought.

"Our wives let us go because no bars are open," Andrew Picariello said. He said he was a former president of the Needham Exchange Club.

Cohasset Selectman Chairman Arthur Clark, who rides a mean moped himself, might be interested to know that additional members are being accepted. "We need a doctor and a psychiatrist, but no women," a chauvinist shouted.

Lloyd Remsen, who described himself as "The world's oldest juvenile delinquent," is club chaplain. While most of the members appeared to have valid credentials, even supplying business cards, we were saddened by the situation of one of the group.

Lou Ravech said he was unemployed, and looking for a job in Cohasset. "Every Sunday he rides around looking for a job," someone said.

Having our scoop, we alerted Police Officer Brian Cogill to the Pussycats' presence. But Officer Cogill seemed to be more interested in giving a redhead directions.

Community Center Marks 3rd Octoberfest

The community center will sponsor its third annual fun fair on October 6 from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. on the community center grounds.

Selectmen have granted the center a one day beer and wine license for the event which will include rowboats on the common duck pond, the Shriner's band, crafts, tables, a flea market, antique tables and a 4 p.m. preview of the auction that will highlight the day for adults.

For the youngsters - monkey magic, cotton candy, games and pony rides. Beer will be served with knockwurst and bratwurst and oom-pah-pah.

Peter O'Laughlin will determine by some method known only to him who is "The Great Pumpkin," a contest with several categories and lots of ribbons.

The auction will begin at 6:30 p.m. under the direction of Robert Turner. Articles to be auctioned will come from The Carousel, a local estate, and other interested local dealers.

For information concerning the auction call the Turners at 383-6513. For information concerning crafts tables and flea markets call Nina Bird at 383-0659.

Food tables will be sponsored by the Nursery School Committee. Information concerning "The Great Pumpkin Contest" will appear in school lunch menus. Anyone interested in volunteering time or service should call Judy Volungis at 383-0752.
